

Logo Philosophy: 75 Years of Indonesia-China Diplomatic Relations

This logo represents the strong and lasting diplomatic relations between Indonesia and China over the past 75 years. Garuda, which symbolizes Indonesia, and Panda, which symbolizes China, are intertwined to depict the harmony and mutual respect between the two countries. The number 75 is prominently displayed, signifying the longstanding partnership and mutual growth.

The use of red, gold, and the national flags of both countries highlight the themes of courage, prosperity, and unity. The dynamic lines and modern design reflect the ever-evolving collaboration across various sectors, including trade, culture, and politics.

The logo not only commemorates past achievements, but also emphasizes the vision for a brighter and more collaborative future between Indonesia and China.
